CHARITY---ENGAGEMENTS---WEDDINGS AFFAIRS FOR

fast winter at Sherry's. From now on there will be numerous entertainments for benevolent purposes, but none will be on a more elaborate scale than that being rehearsed by members of the Junior League, who will hold forth for three days next week at the Waldorf-Astoria.

What promises to be one of the most novel and amusing entertainments for charity of the winter will be given in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on Wednesday and Thursday evenings for the benefit of the Lenox Hill Settlement. It is called "Amateur Night at the Ritz," and in the cast are several prominent amateurs of society, who have been behearing for the produc tion for several weeks. A one act play entitled "Sauce for an Emperor. written by John C. Mosher, will first be presented, and this will be followed a laughable burlesque melodrame entitled "Lucy Moore, the Prune Hater's Daughter." The latter piece s by Everett Shinn, who will appear

Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, who has taken part with success in numerous other entertainments given by amateurs will have the title role in the curtain raiser, which is a sketch of the time the Emperor Nero and relates chiefly to some of his activities. Gordon Knox Bell will have the role of Emperor, and others in the cast will include Mrs. Belmont Tiffany, Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell, Henry Wis Miller, E. Roscoe Mathews, Stuart Benson and Eric Winston.

The east for the burlesque melo drama includes several well known illustrators and amateurs, among them Mrs. Oscar Coolican, who will have th leading role of Lucy Moore; Mrs. William J. Glackens, Mrs. Everett Shinn, Ben Ali Haggin, George Bellows, Randall Davey, Alonzo Kimball and James M. Preston.

An enlarged stage will be erected in the Ritz ballroom and special scenery will be used in both productions. After each performance there will be general dancing. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund for the new Lenox Hill Settlement House now in

On the entertainment committee are Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell, chairman; Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mrs. Nicholas Biddle, Mrs. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. George Draper Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, Mrs. Lawrence Rainsford, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Miss Carol Harriman, Miss Mary Pyne and Miss Marion Clark.

The patronesses include Mrs. Vin cent Astor, Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mrs. Henry Fairfield Osborn, Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Mrs. Orme Wilson, Mrs. son, Mrs. Oren Root, Mrs. Alexander Robert L. Gerry, Mrs. William Earl and John Hatton.
